

Oxford University Year 12 Humanities BAME Study Day 2020

In collaboration with Magdalen College and University College, Oxford

Date: 15 April 2020

Venue: Magdalen College and University College

10:30-11:00 Registration

11-11:15 Welcome and Introduction to studying Humanities at Oxford including Joint Schools

11:15-11:50 Academic Session 1a (English: 'The 'World City' in Victorian Literature by Dr Ushashi Dasgupta) or Academic Session 1b (Oriental Studies: 'Islam and Politics in the Middle East' by Dr Usaama al-Azaimi)

11:50-12:30 Academic Session 2a (History: 'Representing the First World War' by Dr Michael Joseph) or Academic Session 2b (Medieval and Modern Languages: 'Sixteenth-century French Women's Writing: Challenging Gender Expectations in Selected Works of the Dames des Roches', by Ms Nupur Patel.)

12:30-2:00 College tour and lunch

2:00-3:00 'Applying to study at Oxford' session, including a mock interview with a current student

3:00-3:30 Student panel Q&A

3:30-3:45 Break and refreshments

3:45-4:30 Subject-specific small group discussions

4:30-5:00 Event conclusion, evaluation, and final questions